

Sylt Foundation Residency Awards

The inter-disciplinary Sylt Foundation (Kunstraum: Sylt-Quelle) based on the island of Sylt, Germany, grants two Awards in each category annually. The prizes are a funded two month residency at the Foundation. The contemporary visual arts award open to South African artists and a contemporary African literature award open to writers from the African continent or the Disapora. Both prestigious Awards have an open call for applications, followed by a peer review judging process to select the Winners. The judging panels comprise senior and experienced experts in their fields. Art Source South Africa administers both Awards on behalf of the Foundation.
